ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY

Kumaun University, a residential-cum-affiliating University, came into existence in the year 1973 by notification no /8651/15/75(85)/64 dated 23 November 1973 under the Act No.10 of State Legislature (U.P. State Universities Act, 1973 now adopted by Uttarakhand State) with the merger of two Government Colleges, D.S.B. Government P.G. College, Nainital, and Almora Government P.G. College Almora. These Constituent Colleges were later elevated to the status of University Campuses by Government order No. E-1861/GS dated 14/15 March 1994. The University Grants Commission, New Delhi granted recognition to the University under section 12-B of the UGC Act, 1956 and its name appears at serial No.177. Since then, Kumaun University is receiving central assistance from the UGC. The academic wing of the University is spread over two campuses (D.S.B. Campus, Nainital, and newly constructed Technical Campus at Bhimtal) with an area of 5,31,373 sq.mt. (160 acres), the total built-up area is 3,00,000 sq. mt. 21 Government colleges under the administrative control of the State Government and 56 self-financed institutes managed by the private management and 01 Government Aided College, spread over in two districts of Kumaun region are affiliated with the University. It is the biggest State University of the state (Uttarakhand) which caters to the need of about 1,00,000 students by providing a high-quality educational experience in diverse learning environments and promoting the values and institutions of democracy that prepare students to lead lives of personal integrity and civic responsibility and service in a global society.

1 Eligibility criteria for admission to the Ph.D. Programme

The following are eligible to seek admission to the Ph.D. programme:

1.1 Candidates who have completed:

A 1-year/2-semester master's degree programme after a 4-year/8-semester bachelor's degree programme or a 2-year/4-semester master's degree programme after a 3-year bachelor's degree programme or qualifications declared equivalent to the master's degree by the corresponding statutory regulatory body, with at least 55% marks in aggregate or its equivalent grade in a point scale wherever grading system is followed or equivalent qualification from a foreign educational institution accredited by an assessment and accreditation agency which is approved, recognized or authorized by an authority, established or incorporated under a law in its home country or any other statutory authority in that country to assess, accredit or assure quality and standards of the educational institution.

A relaxation of 5% marks or its equivalent grade may be allowed for those belonging to SC/ST/OBC (non-creamy layer)/Differently-Abled, Economically Weaker Section (EWS) and other categories of candidates as per the decision of the Commission from time to time.

Provided that a candidate seeking admission after a 4-year/8-semester bachelor's degree programme should have a minimum of 75% marks in aggregate or its equivalent grade on a point scale wherever the grading system is followed.

- 1.2 Candidates who have completed the M.Phil. programme with at least 55% marks in aggregate or its equivalent grade in a point scale wherever grading system is followed or equivalent qualification from a foreign educational institution accredited by an assessment and accreditation agency which is approved, recognized or authorized by an authority, established or incorporated under a law in its home country or any other statutory authority in that country to assess, accredit or assure quality and standards of educational institutions, shall be eligible for admission to the Ph.D. programme. A relaxation of 5% marks or its equivalent grade may be allowed for those belonging to SC/ST/OBC (non-creamy layer)/Differently Abled, Economically Weaker Section (EWS) and other categories of candidates as per the decision of the Commission from time to time.

Note:

- (A) A Ph.D. candidate is expected to pursue research in the same subject as their Master's degree. However, if the Research Degree Committee (RDC) determines that the candidate has the necessary qualifications, they may also be permitted to conduct research in related subjects within the same or different faculty. Such subjects must first be approved by the University's Academic Council.
- (B) Candidates who have been penalised in any criminal proceedings through any court of law shall be deemed ineligible for this examination. Such candidates are not eligible to apply for RDET.

2. RESERVATION POLICY

Ph.D. seats will be allocated based on the Reservation Policy of the State of Uttarakhand, as applicable from time to time, based on intake in a given academic year. Only candidates who hold domicile and category certificates from Uttarakhand will be eligible for reservation. Category certificates from other states will not be taken into consideration. Candidates from other states will be treated as unreserved candidates.

SPECIAL NOTE

As per the decision made by the Hon'ble High Court Nainital (with respect to Writ petition (M/S) no. 2729 of 2021 on 05.05.2022) and recommendations of the internal committee of Kumaun University, candidates who appeared in the subject of Mathematics in the cancelled RDET-2020 may appear in the RDET-2023 without being required to submit any fee. However, such candidates must apply for the examination through online mode, and inform the Research and Development Cell, Kumaun University, of their intention to apply via email or in writing beforehand, so that their fee can be waived.

3. PROCEDURE FOR ADMISSION:

Candidates seeking registration in the Ph.D. degree program will be selected through either of the following two methods:

- 3.1 Research Degree Entrance Test (RDET), followed by an interview.
- 3.2 Direct admission, whereby the candidate is exempted from RDET but must still apply by completing the online form for the Ph.D. entrance examination and submitting the requisite fees by the designated deadline. These candidates must also appear for the interview as a compulsory requirement.

3.3	Through Research Degree Entrance Test (RDET), followed by an interview.
(i)	The University will administer a written examination worth 100 marks, with a total duration of 2 hours. The exam will consist of 100 objective/multiple-choice questions, each worth one mark, with no penalty for incorrect answers. (ii)	There will be no review or reassessment of the written test answer sheet.
(iii)	After the Research Degree Entrance Test (RDET), a 30-mark interview will be held at the relevant department/University, led by the Head of Department (HOD) and Convener of the subject at Kumaun University. Only those candidates having a percentage score in the entrance test with 50% or more for unreserved candidates, 45% or more for OBC (non-creamy layer) candidates, and 45% or more for SC/ST/VH/PH/EWS candidates shall be eligible to be called for the interview.
(iv)	The final merit ranking of candidates who pass the written examination will be determined by a combination of their scores, with 70% based on the marks scored in the written entrance examination and 30% based on the marks obtained in the interview.

(v)	The selection of candidates for admission to the Ph.D. programme in each subject will be based solely on the final merit list (prepared as per Clause No. 3.3 (iii) above) with consideration given to the available seats in the relevant subject at both the University campuses and affiliated Government Colleges. It should be noted that merely passing the final RDET does not guarantee admission to the Ph.D. programme in the respective subject. Admission will be strictly based on the final merit list, and the allocation of PhD seats will be determined accordingly.
3.4	Direct Admission (RDET- Exempted i.e., without appearing in RDET)
(i)	Candidates who have qualified for the National Eligibility Test (NET) with Junior Research Fellowship (JRF) or RGNF or NFSC or NFOBC or NFST or any equivalent fellowship, candidates who have been awarded the Inspire Fellowship, and candidates who have passed the Graduate Pharmacy Aptitude Test (GPAT) or GATE with fellowship or an equivalent national test may be considered for direct admission to the Ph.D. programme without having to appear for the Research Degree Entrance Test (RDET). However, such candidates must submit an application by the specified deadline and pay the necessary fees for the Ph.D. entrance examination online. Furthermore, the candidates whose fellowship certificate has expired will not be considered eligible for exemption from the RDET for the admission session 2023-2024. *Interview is mandatory for all candidates including those candidates who are exempted from Entrance Test.
(ii)	For candidates who are exempted from the Research Degree Entrance Test (RDET), their NET scores in the relevant subject will be taken into account instead of marks obtained in the written RDET test. The final merit list will be prepared using a 70% weightage of NET scores and a 30% weightage of interview marks. In case the NET Scores are not available, the final merit list will be prepared using a 70% weightage of their post-graduation scores in the relevant subject and a 30% weightage of interview marks.
(iii)	If a candidate who is exempted from RDET appears in the Research Degree Entrance Test, their final merit calculation will be based on the result of RDET written test. Such candidates will not be eligible for admission in the PhD program under the RDET exempted category.
(iv)	Teacher Category: Candidates who have been regularly appointed as permanent teachers in Kumaun University Campus or its affiliated government colleges for a minimum period of one year, in accordance with University/State Government rules, will be exempted from the Ph.D. Entrance Test. However, it is mandatory for them to fill out the online application form for the PhD entrance examination and pay the requisite fees within the given time frame. These candidates must also appear for the interview as it is compulsory. The final merit list will be prepared using a 70% weightage of post-graduate exam scores and a 30% weightage of interview marks.

5.	MERIT LIST AND COUNSELLING
1.	The University will prepare a unified merit list for both RDET appeared and RDET exempted candidates based on the weightage of 70% and 30% respectively as stated earlier. The seat allotment process will be carried out based on this merit list and reservation policy, as specified in the information bulletin.
2.	After the final merit list (RDET/Direct Admission + Interview) is prepared, counselling sessions will be conducted to allocate seats based on the availability of seats at the university campuses and its affiliated colleges.

6.	Centers for the Entrance Test
Entrance Test shall be conducted at the Centres located in the following cities:
1.	NAINITAL
2.	HALDWANI
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The University reserves the right to change/shift the examination city centre opted by the candidate to another nearby centre, if the number of candidates is more/less at any examination city centre.</li> <li>• The Examination City Centre, once opted, shall not be changed.
